

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A service point management system includes an integrated queue management system and counter weighing apparatus. Both the queue management system and the weighing apparatus are linked to a store management system.